1. Duties of the Nomination and Elections Committee.
 - A. Research all available information in the Bylaws, past elections, and solicit information from the current Board and past Board members and other Division members who might have historical election information.

- B. The Election Committee members must also prepare and execute the election.
- C. The primary duty of the election Committee is to identify candidates who will, if elected to the Board, will be highly effective leaders of the division.
 - i. The leadership characteristics of potential candidates are essential.
 - ii. Some of these characteristics will be provided as a guide.
- D. A list of potential candidates needs to be created up as early as possible in the election cycle.
 - i. The names of potential candidates can come from the Board and from the general membership.
 - ii. The Election Committee will compile a list of potential candidates and contact each of these members to determine if they are willing to serve on the Board. Any of these members who agree to serve may become a candidate.
 - iii. Those who indicate they are interested in running in a future election will be placed on a list kept by the Clerk serving on the Board.
- E. Members in good standing can nominated by at least three (3) Division members with the nominee's concurrence. The nominee then becomes a candidate and the member's name, along with the names of those who made the nomination, will be forwarded in writing (e-mail is preferred) to the Election Committee.
- F. It is important to keep the current Board of Directors informed regarding progress and concerns. The Election Committee will prepare a written interim report and a final report to document salient information gathered during the election cycle and a final report prior to the election.
- G. No nominations will have been accepted after the nominations deadline 30 days prior to the election.
- H. INTERIM REPORT: The Election Committee will provide an Interim Report to the Board of Directors at least two weeks prior to the nomination deadline.
 - i. The report will include the number and names of candidates validated by at least three current Division Members.
 - ii. Also, names of candidates solicited by the Election Committee will also be listed.
 - iii. NOTE: The Election Committee's solicitations do not require three members to nominate a candidate.
 - iv. This report should include any positive and negative feedback regarding the election process as well as the request for assistance and guidance from the current Board of Directors.

- I. FINAL REPORT: The Election Committee will provide a final Report to the Board of Directors at least one week after the close out date for nominations.

 - ii. The first paragraph should include the approval authorization of the election Committee to include the name of the Superintendent and concurrence by the other Board members.
 - iii. This report should list the number of vacancies to be filled on the Board, the number of candidates running for the vacancies and the current board members who have decided not to run for re-election.
 - iv. It should also include a statement that the resumes of the candidates were published by the Division in a special edition of the Potomac Flyer and the date of the edition.
 - J. The voting methodology used should also be indicated in this report. For example: a secret ballot at the election place, USPA mail, ballot by e-mail, or election by motion to the members present at the election place.
 - K. The Nominations Committee shall oversee the election as per the procedures provided in the elections policy.
2. Procedure for Voting.
- A. At an appointed time during the Potomac Division's business meeting during which elections have been scheduled to take place, the Chairman of the Nominating Committee will announce the motion for the election of the new members of the board per the current Bylaws of the Division.
 - B. The Chairman of the Nominating Committee will then ask and permit any member in attendance time to deliver a brief set of remarks concerning a nominee or nominees. No nominations will be accepted from the floor.
 - C. If the numbers of candidates are the same as Board vacancies, a motion may be made by the Election Committee to elect from the floor. A "second" from at least one the members present for the election is required. All three candidates must agree with this procedure in advance and in writing to the Election Committee.
 - D. If there are more candidates than board vacancies, a secret ballot vote will be required (See an example ballot at Attachment 1). If the voting occurs at a designated voting place, ballots will be issued by an Election Committee member when the Potomac Division Member signs in at the registration desk. The members name will be checked against the Division roster to confirm their good standing with the NMRA. The ballot will be numbered by the Election Committee member and the ballot number annotated next to the Potomac Division member's name on the sign-in roster. Ballots will be placed in a secure ballot box that is monitored by a Division or Election Committee member.

- E. A ballot casting closing time will be announced and the votes will be counted by two Election Committee members and at least one "disinterested" witness. The "disinterested" witness can be any Division member not involved in the election process or an NMRA member from another Division who is present.
- F. Based on ballot count, the Chairman of the Nominating Committee will announce the top vote gathering that the membership has selected for the new board.
- G. In the event of a tie, a run off using secret ballots will be conducted immediately. If the tie still remains, a deck of cards, a coin toss, or other method agreed to by the tied candidates will be done.
- H. The Chairman of the Nominating Committee will retain all the ballots for at least two (2) weeks after the election.
- I. Voting can be accomplished by absentee ballot voting when approved by the Board. This may be by e-mail and/or US Postal Service. All date requirements for a ballot vote must be complied with and a cut-off date for receipt of such ballots will be announced.
