

POTOMAC DIVISION
CROSSWORD PUZZLE CHALLENGE
APRIL 17, 2020
LOCOMOTIVES AND LOCOMOTIVE MANUFACTURERS

ACROSS

1. Steam engine with 4-8-4 wheel configuration.
3. Steam engine with a 4-4-2 wheel configuration built for the B&O in 1932.
6. Steam engine with a 2-6-0 wheel configuration.
10. Steam engine with a 0-4-0 wheel configuration.
13. Steam engine with a 2-10-0 wheel configuration.
15. Steam engine with a 4-4-2 wheel configuration.
17. Steam engine with a 4-6-4 wheel configuration used on the NYC system.
20. Manufacturer of U-boat locomotives.
21. Steam locomotive with a 4-6-6-4 wheel configuration.

DOWN

2. Steam locomotive with a 4-8-8-4 wheel configuration used on the Union Pacific system.
4. Steam locomotive with a 4-6-0 wheel configuration first built for the Philadelphia and Reading system in 1847.
5. A steam engine manufacturer that was originally located in Philadelphia and then moved to nearby Eddystone, Pennsylvania.
7. Steam engine with a 4-6-2 wheel configuration.
8. Steam engine with a 2-8-2 wheel configuration.
9. This locomotive was the most widely used geared steam locomotive.
11. Steam engine with a 2-6-6-6 wheel configuration built for the C&O system.
12. Steam engine with a 4-8-2 wheel configuration designed for the C&O system in 1910.
14. Steam engine with a 2-2-0 wheel configuration.
16. A 4-4-0 configured steam engine used in Andrews' Raid during the Civil War.
18. The American Locomotive Company.
19. A shortened name of a 2-8-2 locomotive.

